

CONTAINER RISKS COVER

(FOR SHIP OPERATORS AND OTHERS)

Containers and other Cargo Transport Units (CTUs), such as road and rail freight vehicles, are fundamental to the global logistics supply chain. Their use is susceptible to loss or damage and may give rise to liabilities for owners and operators.

TT Club provides a comprehensive package of liability and equipment cover to both owners and operators. The largest interest group for carrying equipment is ship operators, but many other logistics businesses own or operate CTUs.

When a time chartered ship encountered heavy weather and ran aground she lost 30 containers overboard and over 50 containers were damaged in the subsequent collapse of stow. The ship owners declared General Average (GA) and appointed salvors.

TT Club was able to provide security to the Average Adjusters in respect of GA contributions and also security to the salvors in respect of the containers. The claim was managed effectively with the Member being reimbursed swiftly for the loss, damage and repair to its containers.

Standard cover includes:

- Loss of damage to equipment
- Losses due to war risks, strikes, riots and terrorist risks
- General average and salvage
- Third-party liabilities
- Cargo liabilities due to defective equipment
- Fines imposed by an authority such as confiscation of insured equipment
- Investigation, defence and mitigation costs
- Quarantine and disinfection costs

Additional covers may include political risks; capture, seizure and requisition of equipment, North American chassis liability, forwarding liabilities when arranging pre- and on-carriage, and ships agency liabilities.
