Your TT Club Loss Prevention team

TT Club's Loss prevention team is committed to the ongoing development of advice and information to make the global transport and logistics industry safer, more secure and more sustainable. We are committed to taking a central role in the industry, as an independent voice representing the interests of our Members and the wider industry.

Our commitment includes:

- Providing accessible technical and risk management guidance in various media
- Analysing industry and incident data to identify, assess and communicate trends
- Collaborating and participating with like-minded organisations to promote education and change
- Evaluating emerging risks and championing effective innovative solutions (whether practical, digital or procedural)

Our breadth of expertise covers all disciplines including legal and compliance risks, health and safety, technical issues and emerging risks for all modes. Our core team stretches across all major time zones, drawing on the experience of claims and underwriting colleagues.

The aspiration:

To make the complex simple and deliver practical guidance to our membership and beyond.
